

WHAT TO DO

- Make sure your child knows your phone number.
- Tell your child to stay where they are if they get separated; you will come back looking for them.
- Make sure your child knows to ask for police or a store employee if they get separated from you.
- If missing, search the home thoroughly. Teach them all hiding games are over when you say so.
- If missing, immediately contact law enforcement, and provide them this up-to-date kit. Ask them to issue an Amber Alert.
- Report your missing child to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children at 800 THE-LOST (800-843-5678) as soon as possible.

CHILD IDENTIFICATION KIT

If your child is lost or missing, the most important tool that law enforcement has to find them is up-to-date personal information. Complete this kit, and provide it to law enforcement in the event your child is missing. Keep in a safe and easily accessible location, and update at least annually. A free kit may be downloaded at
